

Instructions to Subscribers.

Postage—The postage to all parts of the United States and Canada is paid by the publishers.

Remittances of small sums may be made with comparative safety in ordinary letters. Sums of one dollar or more must be sent by registered letter or post-office money order; otherwise, we cannot be responsible for same.

Change of Address—Subscribers wishing their address changed must invariably give their former as well as new address.

Missing Numbers—It occasionally happens that numbers of our paper sent to subscribers are lost or stolen in the mails. In case you do not receive any number when due, write us a postal card, and we will cheerfully forward a duplicate of the missing number.

Most Important of All—In every letter that you write us, never fail to give your full address plainly written, name, post-office, county and State.

QUICK RESULTS.

N. Studer's seasonable announcement on 8th page appeared for the first time in our issue of Saturday, Nov. 3, 1900, and the responses were so prompt that on Tuesday, Nov. 6, he wrote the editor as follows:

Anacostia, D. C., Nov. 6, 1900.
Dear Sir:—Come over to-morrow. People want already more information in regard to varieties of stock, hence I will have to alter the adv.

Yours,
N. STUDER.

On Wednesday he ordered a much larger display adv., which will appear next week. Any square business man, who has something to offer that suburban people want, can use these columns to his financial advantage.

...THE LETTER...

Mr. W. A. Hahn,
Prop. Hahn's Reliable Dye House,
705 Ninth street, N. W.

Dear Sir:—We find you have been advertising in our columns constantly since July, 1890, when this paper was established.

You are the only business man who was with us then and still remains with us and since you have been advertising in our columns continuously for a period of more than ten years we naturally have a curiosity to know how well you are satisfied with the publicity we have given you.

Respectfully yours,
THE SUBURBAN CITIZEN.

THE REPLY.

Editor Suburban Citizen.

Dear Sir:—In answer to your request I will say I am very well satisfied with results from my adv. in your paper. The fact of my adv. being in your paper for over ten years speaks for itself.

Respectfully,
W. A. HAHN,
705 Ninth street N. W.

FOOT WEARINESS.

Those Who Must Stand Still Should Be on Rugs.

A great many years ago the old-fashioned, back-country housekeeper learned that when she had any work to do that involved a great deal of standing on her feet in one place, she was the gainer by folding a piece of carpet or a rug and placing it on the floor under her feet. It has taken the business men a long time to learn just what a great many of the grandmothers and aunts of this world knew very long ago, namely, that people who stand in one place for that length of time would save a great portion of their foot and leg weariness if they arranged for something soft on the floor. One sensible man spread a thick coating of tan bark on the floor of his warehouse; another used sawdust and found it a great advantage.

Where these substances cannot be introduced with safety or convenience, a light platform of rather thin boards for the men to stand on has been found of great value in the saving of strength. In offices where men are constantly on their feet thick manila matting is helpful in avoiding that extreme weariness to which active people are subject. Wearing loose shoes with a thick insole of felt is recommended when floors are extremely hard and unyielding. A little attention to some of what appear to be the minor details of life will oftentimes repay the painstaking employer in increased usefulness, and the ability to accomplish a greater amount of labor.
